Painters and paper hangers are busy and agents for vacuum cleaners are doing a rushing business.

If you are planning a new house or any improvements Kratz the builder can help you.

DR. J. S. HOWELL

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
Glasses Fitted.

Rooms 401-33 Hannibal Trust Building
HANNIBAL, MISSOURI.

Judge Charles B. Stark of St. Louis was here Thursday. Judge Stark is a candidate for Supreme Judge. Mr. Stark is a pleasant gentleman and has the endorsement of the St. Louis bar for the position. This is an evidence that he is an able lawyer, fair and honest.

If you are not a reader of the Democrat you are living far below your privilege. Of course we can use the dollar that it takes to pay for one year but the paper will help you much more than the dollar will help us.

Mrs. J. G. Jones, of Pittsburg, Penn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Patterson.

John W. Newman, of Stoutsville, transacted business in this city Tuesday.

An enjoyable time was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Berry in this city Saturday upon the occasion of Mrs. Berry's birthday. A number of relatives and friends were present and all report a pleasant time.

W. W. Mitchell, of Shelbyville unloaded 800 goats here Tuesday and drove them out to the Green ranch where they are expected to clean up the brush on short notice. It is claimed that goats can clean the brush from pasture land cheaper than any other method but 800 goats seems rather small for 1100 acres of land.

Miss Salla Rouse will open a new stock of merchandise in her building just east of Wade & Dawson's store next Saturday. She has a carefully selected stock and will be pleased to have you call.

H. B. Mudd has engaged in the ice business and has his office in the F. & M. Bank block. He proposes to treat his customers right.
